(d) if so, what action has been taken by Government thereon ; and

(e) what steps are contemplated by Government to protect the consumers from the inflated prices ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED):

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The price marked on a pre-packed commodity is the maximum limit upto which a retail dealer can charge from consumer. The actual sale price depends on the market forces and competition.

(c) to (e) The Standards of Weights and Measures (Packaged Commodities) Rules, 1977, under which maximum retail price is to be given on a pre-packed commodity is not a price control legislation. It only requires declaration of sale price to be made on the package by the manufacturer. In a free market economy, the actual sale price is decided by market forces and competition amongst manufacturers and other levels of trade.
